

Cloonan Middle School Day at the Stamford Symphony

Sunday, November 13, 2011 is "Cloonan Middle School Day at the Stamford Symphony!" The Stamford Symphony has generously donated 75 vouchers for tickets to its Sunday, November 13, 2011 concert to Cloonan Middle School to sell to raise money for the school's string music program. Tickets go on sale November 1st for the suggested price of $25 for adults and $10 for children. Our school keeps 100% of the proceeds to help enable us to buy supplies, such as strings for string instruments, shoulder rests, rosin, reeds for wind instruments and tools to repair the string instruments. We have more than 80 students in the strings program this year--twice as many as last year, and we are very short in supplies to maintain the instruments that we have.

The November 13th concert begins at 3:00 p.m. and provides a wonderful opportunity for our students and their families to visit the Symphony and explore the beautiful music and "serious fun" of Respighi, Bruch and Brahms, at the Palace Theatre in downtown Stamford.

Join us before the concert at 1:45 p.m. for the MusiKids program, a free, 45-minute interactive music education experience that will help the students understand the afternoon's performance and have an opportunity to meet one of our talented musicians! (and possibly our guest violinist - Phillipe Quint - as well, depending on his availability before the performance).

All Cloonan audience members will be seated together, so there will be a chance to socialize during the intermission and after the concert.

Order your ticket(s) now by completing the form below and returning it to Cloonan PTO, Attn: Virginia Prial before November 7, along with your check payable to Cloonan PTO. This is a perfect opportunity to support our school, make money for arts programs at Cloonan, and hear some incredible music with your family. All tickets will be held at the door - just provide your name and voucher provided to you.
